

The Norman Conquest

59

" in accord with our mm , , , Henry
"should elect,
"saving ttlwayw the htmuur and respect duo to Henry m'tual King, and, we hope, future Emperor," it tuldfil "ant! to those of his successors who shall haw cihtatnctl this right personally from the Holy *Si*t*" *Tin Empire wur now governed by a woman ami Hewy IV. wan n child, but it wtis im'vitnhif that In tt»«^s the wording of the ,ni«j»ttl !«• (*imvituuunt frtmi tltirman*y.
it }{nrtiuul* authurily ttmld not stand alone rllhrr mmmt tlut Etupim or the Roman
|intricbiu«, *t««j*cHmi iitlit»«* must be found. It was llildrbnuid tho Church from her i, in winning over the Normans, m allies of the Cluniac Pupucy, to defend Rtmie at once from the (*k*nmin»*), and front the Htmian and TiU5r»lit« iifhlrn, who with u FU'iUHHet or Cadtdus
ai» unit i!^" iiifriifriit'tl to undo UKI work of a t Rt*f»ri!i»* itittl annul thw election decree

In t««5H, HiUMmtnd rantti south, At Monte
*Car*4m* titJ«* friiui *I3«*nliit*ritit wtutahlxn, in Salerno,
hir» mlmlrrr *tin *|K*t»t* Alfan w»a Archbinhop; the two atwul fyr CJmrrh Hrforni in the south. After wryrittg *tin iffntl *ilrfirrlcriiw nblx»y against the

I4t,ti4i*ki4 itf C*#i|iiMt by a jtntrlicitl recognition of Kichnrtrl* fir trlnrnwi iitirth with three hundred Nurtimii nn t«i rniwt, In the wtttimer of ic>5«), /|w rttf*p hiftwlf ritmi* to it great synod at Mt'lf tltr ifutil-ilati Nonnanii mingled with thr bislt«fe nlilic»tft of the soutli.
Little